The Hayling Billy Trail

The Hayling Billy Trail is not just for a great stroll along a wonderful coastline. The Trail is also a cycle way and riders and their horses are welcome too.

The scenery along the trail is second to none and the wildlife will really surprise you. The flora along the path is part of a managed scientific planting area. If you are a bird lover, there is much to see all year round as the migration seasons constantly change the backdrop.

HiRock Indoor Climbing Wall

Hi ROCK is a community climbing wall situated within The Hayling College on Hayling Island. Public sessions, every Tuesday and Wednesday from 6.30pm to 9.30pm, are a chance for experienced climbers to come along and use the wall at Hi ROCK. All climbers will receive an assessment before climbing commences on their first session, this includes belaying, lowering and tying-in. Our routes are all bottom rope belayed and have bolts for lead climbing. To lead on our routes climbers will need to supply climbing rope and 5 quickdraws. Climbers must bring another person to climb with or to belay them.

Explosion!

Part of the Historic Dockyard, the story of naval warfare is told in dramatic style at Explosion!, an interactive museum housed in the Royal Navy's former Ordnance Depot at Priddy's Hard, centered around the powder magazine designed in 1771.

In the Napoleonic Wars, this was where all Royal Navy warships including HMS Victory came to load up their guns and ammunition. The last time Priddy's Hard supplied weapons to the Royal Navy was during the Falklands War in 1982.
