- 3.1.19 do anything lawful which promotes the Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so.

4. Liability of Members of the Club

4.1 The liability of each Voting Member is limited to £1, being the amount that each Voting Member guarantees to contribute to the assets of the Club in the event of its being wound up while they are a Voting Member, or within one year after they cease to be a Voting Member, for:

- 4.1.1 payment of the Club's debts and liabilities contracted before they cease to be a Voting Member; and
- 4.1.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up; and
- 4.1.3 adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

5. Members

- 5.1 For the purposes of the Act, membership of the Club is limited to Voting Members.
- 5.2 Other Club Members shall be permitted to use and enjoy the facilities of the Club as may be set out in the Rules but shall not be Voting Members for the purposes of the Act,
- 5.3 No person will become a Voting Member unless:
 - 5.3.1 they are a natural person;
 - 5.3.2 that person is over the age of 18 years old;
 - 5.3.3 that person has completed an application for membership in a form approved by the General Committee from time to time;
 - 5.3.4 the General Committee has approved the application: and
 - 5.3.5 the member subscription has been paid as set out in the Rules.
- 5.4 The General Committee may refuse an application for Club membership, if they consider it to be in the best interests of the Club to refuse the application.
- 5.5 Every person who was a voting member of the Unincorporated Club, over the age of 18 and is paying a subscription as an Adult Single, Adult Couple, part of a Family Subscription or is a Life Honorary Member as set out in the Rules and who, in the timeframe specified by the General Committee, completes an application form agreeing to the stipulated conditions and, if applicable, the payment of the entrance fee and the annual subscription of the Club, may be admitted as a Voting Member of the Club.
- 5.6 A Life Honorary Member of the Unincorporated Club will be deemed to be a Voting Member on confirmation of their guarantee in a form determined by the General Committee, but without any subscription requirement.
- 5.7 The Club will maintain a register of Voting Members and any person ceasing to be a Voting Member will be removed from the register.
- 5.8 The General Committee may establish different categories of Club Members and decide who will be eligible for admission to them and what their rights and obligations will be.
- 5.9 Membership is not transferable.

6. Member Subscriptions

- 6.1 An annual subscription will be payable on 1 January in each year or on acceptance as a Club Member on any other date in accordance with the Rules.
- 6.2 The entrance fee and annual subscription for all categories of Club Members will be determined by the General Committee from time to time.

7. Other Classes of Membership

Other classes of Non-Voting Members not providing the Guarantee under these Articles may be recommended by the General Committee from time to time and be set out in the Rules.

8. Termination of Club Membership

- 8.1 A Club Member's membership (this includes, for the avoidance of doubt, a Voting Member's membership as a Voting Member) of the Club is terminated if:

- 8.1.1 they die;
- 8.1.2 they resign by giving the Club three months' written notice. Any resignation shall take effect without prejudice to such Club Member's liability to pay their annual membership subscription in respect to the period in which the resignation takes place;
- 8.1.3 any sum due from the Club Member to the Club is not paid in full within six months of it falling due, and the General Committee resolves that the membership of that Club Member be terminated; or
- 8.1.4 they cease to be a Club Member under the Rules.

- 8.2 Notification of any Club Member who is removed under Articles 8.1.3 and 8.1.4 must be forwarded to that Club Member. No Club Member removed under 8.1.3 and 8.1.4 may become a Club Member in the future other than by unanimous decision of the General Committee.

9. Cessation of Membership

Any person, on ceasing to be a Club Member, shall forfeit all right to have any claim upon the Club, its property and funds (except for any claim to the repayment of any loan made to the Club).

10. Calling General Meetings

- 10.1 The AGM will usually be held in the autumn of each year.
- 10.2 The SGM will be held in the spring of each year.
- 10.3 The General Committee may call a General Meeting of the Voting Members at any time, and such a meeting will be held in accordance with the Act.
- 10.4 General Meetings may be held as physical or hybrid meetings, where some Voting Members attend electronically and some attend physically, and it will be for the General Committee to determine the format.

- 10.5 The General Committee must call a General Meeting if they receive a request to do so from not less than 5% of the Voting Members, in accordance with section 303 of the Act. The meeting must be called within 21 days of the receipt of the request and must be held within 28 days of the date of the notice calling the meeting.
- 10.6 If the General Committee fails to call a meeting following a request from the Voting Members under Article 10.5, the Voting Members may convene a General Meeting in accordance with Section 305 of the Act.

11. Business at General Meetings

- 11.1 The business at an AGM shall include:

- 11.1.1 the consideration of the accounts and reports of the General Committee ~~and any sub-committees as established from time to time;~~
- 11.1.2 ~~a report from the Sailing and House Sub-committees and such other sub-committees as the General Committee shall consider appropriate a report of the General Committee;~~
- 11.1.3 the retirement, appointment or re-appointment of the General Committee in accordance with articles 21, 22, 23 and 24; and
- ~~11.1.4 To receive the Rear Commodore Finance 's report on the balance sheet and statement of accounts;~~
- ~~11.1.5 To approve the five year forward plan;~~
- ~~11.1.6~~ 11.1.4 To conduct such business as may arise therefrom;
- ~~11.1.7~~ 11.1.5 the appointment of auditors;
- ~~11.1.8~~ 11.1.6 To decide upon any resolution submitted to the meeting, as provided for in Article 11.3; and
- ~~11.1.9~~ 11.1.7 To consider any other business the General Committee shall deem appropriate.

- 11.2 The business at an SGM shall include:

- ~~11.2.1~~ To receive the balance sheet and statement of accounts for the past year;
- ~~11.2.2~~ To receive the Rear Commodore Finance 's report on the balance sheet and statement of accounts;
- ~~11.2.4~~ 11.2.3 To approve the [rolling] five-year forward plan;
- ~~11.2.2~~ 11.2.4 To discuss and decide upon any resolution, which may be duly submitted to the meeting, as provided for in Article 11.3 ; and
- ~~11.2.3~~ 11.2.5 To consider any other business the General Committee shall deem appropriate.

- 11.3 Any Voting Member who wishes to propose a motion at an AGM or SGM shall give no less than 38 days' notice in writing to the General Committee, naming the seconded. Each such motion will then be included in the agenda for and notice calling the meeting.

12. Notice of General Meetings

- 12.1 No business may be conducted at any General Meeting unless a notice has been sent to every Voting Member and Director which:
- 12.1.1 sets out the time, date, place and the general nature of the business of the meeting;
 - 12.1.2 sets out the text of any special resolution which is proposed to be passed at the general meeting; and
 - 12.1.3 is given in hard copy form, electronic form or by means of the website, in accordance with section 309 of the Act, or partly by one such means and partly by another.
- 12.2 The minimum periods of notice required to hold a General Meeting of the Club are:
- 12.2.1 21 clear days for a SGM, an AGM or a General Meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution; and
 - 12.2.2 14 clear days for all other General Meetings.
- 12.3 A General Meeting may be called on shorter notice if it is so agreed by a 90 per cent majority in number of Voting Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting.

13. Attendance By Non-Voting Members

The General Committee may permit Club Members who are Non-Voting Members and other persons who are not Voting Members of the Club to attend and speak at a General Meeting.

14. Quorum for General Meetings

- 14.1 No business will be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum is 40 Voting Members who are present in person or by proxy and who are entitled to vote on the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- 14.2 If a quorum is not present from the time appointed for the meeting or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting will be dissolved if it was called upon the requisition of Voting Members. In any other case:
- 14.2.1 the meeting will be adjourned to such time and such place as determined by the General Committee; and
 - 14.2.2 the General Committee must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - 14.2.3 if no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within 15 minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting, the Voting Members present in person or by proxy at that time will constitute the quorum for that meeting.

15. Chairing General Meetings

- 15.1 The Commodore will chair General Meetings of the Club or, if they are absent, they may delegate the chairmanship to another member of the General Committee. If neither the Commodore nor the delegated chair is present within 15 minutes, the Voting Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 15.2 In the event of an equality of votes, the chair will have a second casting vote. This does not apply if the chair is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

16. Decision-Making by Members

- 16.1 The decisions in this sub-clause must be approved by Special Resolution of the Voting Members:
- 16.1.1 borrowing money and giving security for loans or other obligations, in excess of £ £100,000 or any other higher amount which may be agreed by Ordinary Resolution from time to time;
 - 16.1.2 selling or otherwise disposing of the Club's freehold property other than the grant of a lease for a term of less than 7 years; or
 - 16.1.3 acquiring, amalgamating or merging with, or undertaking all of the property, liabilities and engagements of any other body.
- 16.2 Subject to the Act, at any General Meeting, including any hybrid General Meeting:
- 16.2.1 every Voting Member who is in attendance (or by proxy) will on a show of hands have one vote unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded; and
 - 16.2.2 every Voting Member in attendance (or by proxy) will on a poll have one vote.
- 16.3 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.
- 16.4 Unless a poll is demanded, the declaration by the chair of the result of the vote and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and the number or proportion of votes cast in favour or against need not be recorded
- 16.5 A technical defect in the voting process of which the Voting Members are unaware at the time, does not invalidate a decision taken at a General Meeting or a written resolution of the Voting Members.

17. Appointment of Proxies

17.1 A Voting Member is entitled to appoint a proxy, in accordance with the Act, to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote at a General Meeting.

17.2 The appointment of a proxy under Article 17.1, must be notified to the General Committee in writing before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy will attend.

18. Written Resolutions

Except where otherwise provided by these Articles or the Act, a written resolution as defined in the Act (whether an Ordinary or a Special Resolution) is as valid as an equivalent resolution passed at a General Meeting. For this purpose, the written resolution may be set out in more than one document.

19. General Committee

19.1 The General Committee is responsible for the management of the Club's business, for which they may exercise all powers of the Club other than those decisions specifically reserved to the Voting Members as set out in Article 16.1 .

19.2 Each General Committee member is a Director of the Club for the purposes of the Act.

19.3 No-one may be a General Committee member unless they are a Voting Member.

19.4 A General Committee member may not appoint an alternate General Committee member or anyone to act on their behalf at General Committee meetings.

19.5 Unless otherwise agreed by the General Committee, no person shall be eligible for election as a member of the General Committee unless they have been a Voting Member for at least two years.

20. Number of General Committee Members

20.1 The number of General Committee members shall be no fewer than six and no more than 12 consisting of the three Flag Officers listed at Article ~~20.220-3~~, three Executive Officials listed at Article 20.4 and up to six other elected General Committee members. Other General Committee members may be co-opted where a particular skill or experience is required, or a casual vacancy arises.

20.2 At any time the total number of co-opted General Committee members shall not be greater than the number of elected General Committee members.

20.3 The Flag Officers are the:

20.3.1 Commodore

20.3.2 Vice Commodore Sailing

20.3.3 Vice Commodore House

20.4 The Executive Officials are the:

20.4.1 Chair of the Membership Committee

20.4.2 Chair of the Estates Committee

20.4.3 Rear Commodore Finance

20.5 The failure to elect a General Committee member will not invalidate any proceedings of the General Committee.

20.6 The general manager of the Club may attend a meeting of the General Committee by invitation but shall not vote or count towards quorum.

20.7 The first General Committee members will be those who held the corresponding role in the Unincorporated Club and will be automatically appointed as the General Committee of the Club on the Transfer Date.

21. Flag Officer Appointment and Terms

21.1 The Flag Officers are to be elected by the Voting Members at an AGM and may be co-opted by the General Committee should a vacancy occur, in accordance with any procedures set out in the Rules. Any co-opted Flag Officer will retire at the next AGM following their appointment but will be eligible for election.

21.2 The Flag Officers will retire at each AGM but will be eligible for re-election, except that no one may hold the office of Commodore or as one of the Vice Commodores for more than three consecutive years [unless otherwise agreed by the General Committee].

22. Executive Official Appointment and Terms

22.1 The Executive Officials are to be elected by the Voting Members at an AGM or co-opted by the General Committee should a vacancy occur, in accordance with any procedures set out in the Rules. Any co-opted Executive Official will retire at the next AGM following their appointment but will be eligible for election.

22.2 Executive Officials will retire at each AGM but will be eligible for re-election.

23. Elected General Committee Member Appointment and Terms

23.1 Up to six elected General Committee members are to be elected by the Voting Members at an AGM and may be co-opted by the General Committee should a vacancy occur in accordance with any procedures set out in the Rules. Any co-opted or elected General Committee Member will retire at the next AGM following their appointment but will be eligible for election.

23.2 Elected General Committee members will retire at each AGM such that there is one vacancy for elected General Committee members on the General Committee. They will be eligible for re-election.

23.3 Elected General Committee members will retire in order of seniority calculated from the date of their most recent election. In the case of equal seniority, the order of retirement shall be determined by lot, if agreement between those concerned cannot be obtained.

23.4 In addition to the elected General Committee members appointed in accordance with article 23.1, the General Committee may appoint up to three elected General

Committee members who it believes provide special skills or experience required by the Club. These members shall continue for such period as the General Committee shall determine but may be removed by an Ordinary Resolution of Voting Members at any General Meeting.

24. Director Termination

- 24.1 A General Committee member will cease to hold office if:
- 24.1.1 their term of office expires;
 - 24.1.2 they cease to be a Voting Member of the Club;
 - 24.1.3 they are removed by Ordinary Resolution of the Voting Members pursuant to the Act;
 - 24.1.4 they cease to be a Director by virtue of any provision in the Act or are prohibited by law from being a Director;
 - 24.1.5 they have a bankruptcy order made against them or a composition is made with their creditors generally in satisfaction of their debts;
 - 24.1.6 in the written opinion of a registered medical practitioner who is treating them, they have become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;
 - 24.1.7 they resign by written notice to the Club, provided that at least five General Committee members will remain in office once the resignation takes effect;
 - 24.1.8 they are absent from all General Committee meetings held within a period of six consecutive months, without the permission of the General Committee, which resolves that their office be vacated; or
 - 24.1.9 they are removed by a resolution passed by a two thirds majority of other General Committee members on the basis that their removal as a Director is in the best interest of the Club.
- 24.2 Before passing any resolution under Article 24 the General Committee shall first invite the views of the Director concerned and consider the matter in light of any such views.

25. Calling a General Committee Meeting

- 25.1 The General Committee shall meet not less than eight times per year and at least every two months. Any additional meeting may be called by the Commodore, the chair appointed in relation to the meeting in accordance with Article 28 or at the request of six General Committee members.
- 25.2 Notice of a meeting need not be in writing but must be given to each member of the General Committee and must specify:
- 25.2.1 the proposed date and time of the meeting;
 - 25.2.2 where the meeting is to take place; and

- 25.2.3 if it is anticipated that the General Committee members participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 25.3 A General Committee meeting may be either in person and/or by electronic means agreed by the General Committee members, by which all those participating in the meeting are able to communicate with all other participants.
- 26. Decisions Made by the General Committee
- 26.1 A decision of the General Committee is taken in accordance with this Article when all General Committee members, eligible to vote under Article 29, indicate to each other by any means in Writing that they share a common view on a matter.
- 26.2 Where all members of the General Committee do not share a common view on a matter, decisions are made by a majority vote in a meeting.
- 26.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible General Committee members would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.
- 27. Quorum for General Committee Meetings
- 27.1 The quorum for a General Committee meeting is six.
- 27.2 Unless a quorum is participating in a General Committee meeting, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 27.3 If the total number of General Committee members for the time being is less than the quorum required for decision-making by the General Committee, the General Committee will not take any decision other than a decision to call a General Meeting to appoint further General Committee members.
- 28. Chairing General Committee Meetings
- 28.1 The Commodore will act as chair for General Committee meetings. In the Commodore's absence or abstention from a vote, the chair will be appointed from amongst the following in order of priority: Vice Commodore Sailing, Vice Commodore House or any other General Committee member appointed by those present at the meeting.
- 28.2 In the event of an equality of votes, the chair will have a second casting vote. This does not apply if the chair is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
- 29. Conflicts of Interest
- 29.1 A General Committee member must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which they have in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Club, or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Club, which has not previously been declared.
- 29.2 If a proposed decision of the General Committee is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Club in which a General Committee member is interested, that General Committee member is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes, unless in the opinion of the other members of the General Committee that General Committee member's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest.

- 29.3 Where the number of non-conflicted General Committee members is less than the quorum for the purposes of approving a resolution authorising any situation or transaction constituting a conflict as anticipated by the Act, the quorum will be all the non-conflicted General Committee members.
- 29.4 The General Committee may, in accordance with the requirements set out in Article 29.5, authorise any situation in which a General Committee member has or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Club which would, if not authorised, involve a General Committee member breaching their duty under Section 175 of the Act, to avoid conflicts of interest.
- 29.5 Any authorisation under Article 29.4 will only be effective if:
- 29.5.1 the matter in question was proposed by any General Committee member for consideration in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the General Committee; and
 - 29.5.2 any requirement as to the quorum is met without counting the interested General Committee member; and
 - 29.5.3 the matter was agreed to without the interested General Committee member voting or would have been agreed to if the interested General Committee member's vote had not been counted.
- 29.6 When all General Committee members are conflicted, the Club will pass the conflict to the Voting Members for approval by Ordinary Resolution.

30. Procedural Defects

A procedural defect of which the General Committee was unaware at the time will not invalidate any decisions taken at that General Committee meeting.

31. Application of Income and Surplus

- 31.1 The income of the Club will be applied solely in furtherance of the Objects and no part of the income or property of the Club may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit, to any Voting Member or General Committee member. This will not prevent:
- 31.1.1 the provision of facilities or services to any Club Member;
 - 31.1.2 the provision of facilities or services to any General Committee member in their capacity as a Club Member;
 - 31.1.3 the payment or provision in good faith of:

- a. reasonable and proper remuneration to any Club Member for any goods or services supplied to the Club provided that Article 31.2 applies if such a member is a General Committee member; or
- b. interest on money lent by a Club Member to the Club at a reasonable and proper rate; or
- c. reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by a Club Member to the Club; or
- d. reasonable out-of-pocket expenses properly incurred by a General Committee member when acting on behalf of the Club; or
- e. Directors' indemnity insurance purchased by the Club for the benefit of its General Committee members.

31.2 A General Committee member may only be paid for goods or services supplied to the Club if:

31.2.1 there is a written agreement between the Club and the General Committee member setting out the amount or the maximum amount that they may be paid; and

31.2.2 the amount is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances; and

31.2.3 there is a majority of General Committee members who have not been paid for goods and services to the Club.

32. Winding Up

32.1 On the winding up or dissolution of the Club, after provision has been made for all its debts and liabilities, any assets or property that remain (the Club's remaining assets) will not be paid or distributed to the Club Members but will be applied or transferred at the discretion of the General Committee:

32.1.1 directly for the Objects and/or

32.1.2 to any club, organisation, charity or other non-profit making organisation for purposes similar to the Objects of the Club as determined by Special Resolution of the Voting Members.

33. Delegation By the General Committee

33.1 The General Committee will appoint the following standing Committees subordinate to the General Committee annually, the composition and remit of which are defined in the Rules:

33.1.1 Sailing Committee,

33.1.2 House Committee,

33.1.3 Estates Committee

33.1.4 Strategy Committee, and

33.1.5 Membership Committee

33.2 The General Committee will appoint the following permanent Committees subordinate to the Sailing Committee annually, the composition and remit of which are defined in the Rules:

33.2.1 Club Racing

33.2.2 Cruising, and

33.2.3 Youth

33.3 The General Committee may appoint from time-to-time additional ad hoc subcommittees with specialist functions and duties.

33.4 The Commodore and Vice Commodores, or their nominated representatives, shall have the right to attend the meeting of any committee or subordinate committee.

34. Change of Name and Articles

34.1 The name of the Club may be changed only by a Special Resolution of the Voting Members

34.2 These Articles may be only amended by Special Resolution of the Voting Members.

35. Rules

35.1 The General Committee may make such reasonable and proper Rules as they may deem necessary for the proper conduct and management of the Club. A copy of the Rules currently in force shall be permanently posted on the Club's website and noticeboard.

35.2 The Rules may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:

35.2.1 the admission of Club Members and the rights and privileges of such Club Members and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by Club Members or by different categories of Club Members;

35.2.2 the conduct of Club Members in relation to one another and to the Club's employees;

35.2.3 the use of the Club's property and facilities;

35.2.4 the procedure at General Meetings and General Committee meetings so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Act or the Articles;

35.2.5 generally, such matters as are commonly the subject matter of Club or company Rules.

35.3 The Rules will be binding on all Club Members. No Rule will be inconsistent with, or will affect or repeal anything contained in, the Articles.

36. Minutes

36.1 The General Committee will ensure the Club keeps the following records in writing and in permanent form:

- 36.1.1 minutes of proceedings at General Meetings; and
- 36.1.2 minutes of General Committee meetings and of subcommittee meetings, including the names of the General Committee and others in attendance at such meetings; and
- 36.1.3 copies of resolutions of the Club and of the General Committee, including those passed otherwise than at General Meetings or at General Committee meetings; and
- 36.1.4 particulars of General Committee members.

37. Records and Accounts

- 37.1 The General Committee will comply with the requirements of the Act as to maintaining a Voting Members' register, keeping financial records, the audit or examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies of:
 - 37.1.1 annual reports,
 - 37.1.2 annual returns, and
 - 37.1.3 annual statements of account.
- 37.2 Accounting records relating to the Club must be made available for inspection by any General Committee member at any reasonable time during normal office hours.

38. Communications

- 38.1 Notices and other documents to be served on Voting Members or General Committee members under these Articles or the Act may be served:
 - 38.1.1 by hand
 - 38.1.2 by post
 - 38.1.3 by suitable electronic means, or
 - 38.1.4 through publication in the Club's newsletter or on the Club's website.
- 38.2 The only address at which a Voting Member is entitled to receive notices sent by post is an address in the U.K. shown in the register of Voting Members.
- 38.3 Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received:
 - 38.3.1 24 hours after being sent by electronic means, posted on the Club's website or delivered by hand to the relevant address; or
 - 38.3.2 two clear days after being sent by first class post to that address; or
 - 38.3.3 three clear days after being sent by second class post to that address; or
 - 38.3.4 immediately on being handed to the recipient personally; or, if earlier,
 - 38.3.5 as soon as the recipient acknowledges actual receipt.

38.4 A technical defect in service of which the General Committee is unaware at the time does not invalidate the notice or document.

39. Irregularities

The proceedings of any meeting or the taking of any poll or the passing of a written resolution or the making of any decision, shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including by accidental omission to give or any non-receipt of notice) or want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting or by reason of any business being considered which is not specified in the notice.

40. Indemnity

40.1 Subject to Article 40.2 but without prejudice to any indemnity to which they may otherwise be entitled, every General Committee member or former General Committee member, or Club Member acting in an official capacity, will be indemnified out of the assets of the Club in relation to any liability they incur in that capacity.

40.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity to the extent that such indemnity would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Act or by any other provision of law and any such indemnity is limited accordingly.
